

Fake antimalarials: Start with the facts

Thursday 28 May 2015

Hotel Metropole, Geneva, Switzerland

Agenda

Time	Title of Presentation	Speaker
9.00	Registration and coffee
9.30	Welcome	David Schellenberg (LSHTM)
9.45	The importance of drug quality: Scene setting	Souly Phanouvong (USP)
10.30	Drug quality and antimalarial efficacy - the WWARN perspective	Phillippe Guérin (University of Oxford)
11.00	WHO Surveillance and Monitoring - regulatory perspective	Michael Deats (WHO)
11.30	Strengthening supply chains to prevent theft & diversion of donor funded ACTs	Andrew McLoughlin (The Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria)
12.00	Lunch
13.00	Field tests and laboratory analysis for drug quality assurance	Ben Wilson (Intellectual Ventures Laboratory) Harparkash Kaur (LSHTM)
13.30	Evaluating the scale of the problem: Sampling considerations for field surveys of drug quality	Siân Clarke (LSHTM)
14.00	Findings from the ACT Consortium drug quality programme in 6 countries	Harparkash Kaur (LSHTM)
15.00	Coffee
15.30	International collaborative work against pharmaceutical crimes	Aline Plancon (Interpol)
16.00	Recommendations on improving the surveillance of antimalarial drug quality – what next?	Panel discussion moderated by David Schellenberg
17.15	Closing remarks	David Schellenberg (LSHTM)
18.00	London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine Alumni Reception	